Landscaping Award success for Woodhouse Landscape Ltd

Cambridgeshire based Woodhouse Landscape Ltd have received recognition for their high quality landscaping work by receiving an award at the Association of Professional Landscapers annual award ceremony which took place in Leicestershire last week.

The company received the overall winner award in the 'Special Feature' category which was presented to them by garden designer Andy Sturgeon.

“Designed in a formal style with West Pennine Grit Stone radiating around the pool, the natural swimming pool is the highlight of a spectacular garden. Utilising natural cleaning properties of plants, the pool maintains clear and safe water for swimming; further features include oak gazebos, terraces and modern perennial planting.”

Commenting on their success, Will Woodhouse from Woodhouse Landscape Ltd said, “We are thrilled to have received this prestigious award. It is recognition of our design and build quality and of the innovative, exciting features Natural Swimming Pools are proving to be.”

Chair of the judging panel and APL vice-chairman, Mark Gregory said, “We received a record number of entries this year and the standard was exceptionally high. Landscaping really does benefit from attention to detail and many of the winning schemes showed this. Many congratulations to Woodhouse Landscape Ltd on their success.”

The APL Awards, sponsored by Bradstone, recognise the very best in landscaping undertaken by APL members in projects that range from smaller projects to garden maintenance to contracts of over £50,000. The awards are a celebration of the high standards that have been achieved by members and a demonstration of the APL's commitment to quality landscaping.
